

William Howard School Community Lectures 2012

Talks start at 7.30pm in the school's Lecture Theatre.

All are cordially invited to attend.

Admission is Free

There may be the opportunity to ask questions at the end of the talks.

For further information please ring
016977 45743

Tuesday, 7 February 2012

Adventure in Antarctica

Chris Mothersdale, WHS

Climbing Mount Vinson – a mountain on the most remote continent.

Tuesday, 21 February 2012

“It's not just dirt: how soils bring down civilisations and control the greenhouse effect”.

Professor John Quinton

Lancaster University

A talk on how soil is critical to the future of life on earth.

Tuesday, 28 February 2012

“Reaping more from what you sow - Plant Science & Food Security”

Dr Sally Wilkinson, Lancaster University

How plant scientists are helping in the battle to make sure that world harvests of our staple food crops can keep up with population growth.

Two topics to help you understand local, renewable, energy technologies

Tuesday, 6 March 2012

Photovoltaics

Tuesday, 13 March 2012

Anaerobic Digestion

These two sessions will be delivered by Sustainable Brampton and involve informative talks and discussions. Bring your queries to be answered by the expert panel.

Tuesday, 20 March 2012

“Heresy, Contraction, Technology Development and Genius”

Phil Furneaux – WHS and Physics Communicator, Lancaster University.

A talk on the historical development of our cosmological theories. No prior knowledge of Physics needed!